H. A. PATTERSON, P. M.

Nan, the Newsboy.

St. Nicholas for August.

Nan, the Newsboy, is among the latest of the old characters which spring into time from time to time of the varied life of the great city of New York.

A year ago he formed a little band, consisting of himself and two others, to patrol the East River docks at night and rescue persons from drowning.

Some charitable persons heard of the boys, gave them a floating station to live in, boats, neat blue uniforms, and a small weekly salary to devote their whole time to the work.

Nan's real name is William J. O'Neil. He is a thoroughbred, and his manners, and uses the dialect common among ragged newsboys and boot-blacks.

The regulations by which the association should be governed, according to his idea, are few and simple. As pointed out with other matters in his rough log-book, they are:

1. Members shall do whatever the president orders them.

2. No one shall be a member who drinks or gets drunk.

3. Any members not down in Dover dock, and miss one night except in sickness, shall be fined fifty cents by order of the president.

4. No cursing allowed.

Spelling is not Nan's strong point, and I have taken the liberty to arrange this according to the usual custom. Nor does he keep records in a scientific manner. Case four, in his list of rescues, sets down only "A Jew boy." Case five is "A red-headed boy who fell in the water, but could not find his name."

The first meeting of the association took place on one pleasant day in June, 1878.

"We was a-sittin' on Dover dock," Nan says, "tellin' stories. We got talkin' about how a body was took out 'most every day, and some said two hundred was took out in a year. We'd heered about life-savin' on the Jersey coast, too. So I says: 'Say we makes a 'sociation of it, boys, for to go along the docks pickin' 'em up regular.' 'All right,' they says, and they nominate me for president. We thought we might as well do 'at as losin' on corners."

Might as well be brave and humane fellows, that is, as idle and dangerous loungers? Yes, indeed, they might, and this was the way of putting it is infinitely to Nan's credit.

The three have nothing very distinctive in their appearance, excepting their plain uniform. Nan has a rosy complexion and a serious manner. He has sold papers almost ever since he can remember. Edward Kelly is paler and slighter, and has quite a decided air of dignity. Gilbert Long is sun-browned, and has a merry twinkle in his eye. He looks as if likely to be the most recklessly persistent of the lot in any dangerous straits. The three boys have been all born in Cherry street. Long has been a tin-smith's apprentice, and Kelly a leather-cutter.

They have with them also five unpaid volunteers who serve at night. The service is divided into three patrols.

Cherry street and its vicinity abound in tenements, sailor boarding-houses and drinking saloons. The upper part of South street is a kind of breathing-place for this equidistant quarter. It is much favored by idle urchins especially, who find a hundred ways to amuse themselves among the boxes and bales. A breeze blows from the water, across the edge of the dusty, coffee-colored pier, and gives a breath of fresh air.

The fish-dock and the old "dirt"-dock in Peck Slip on summer evenings are white with the figures of bathers. Often, too, even when the law was more stringent against it than now, they found means to swim in the day time.

The tumble over one another, reaching the water for hours, swim across the swift stream to Brooklyn and back, and dive to the muddy bottom for coins thrown to them by spectators.

This was the training school of our life.

savers. Accidents were very frequent here and the boys made many rescues without thinking much of them.

Their house is a little box of a place, painted light blue, moored under the shade of the great Brooklyn bridge, and close to both the Fulton and Roosevelt street ferries. The front door of the establishment, as it might be called, is through a hole in a dilapidated fence; then down a ladder, and perhaps across a canal boat, or two to where it lies wedged in in the crushed basin. They have a row boat and a life-saving raft of the catamaran pattern.

Inside, the station has three bunks, some lockers to hold miscellaneous articles, a small stove in a corner, and a small case of books contributed by the Seaman's Friend society. These are largely accounts of courage and ingenuity in danger likely to be appreciated by boys in their circumstances. When they unbend after duty is over, Nan plays the banjo and what he calls the "cordeen," and there is quite a social time.

Nan had saved eight persons, Long six, and Kelly four, before the association was formed, and Nan had received a silver medal from the United States Life Saving Association.

His most gallant case was the rescue of three young men overboard from a tugboat by collision with the Italian steamer of Eleventh street. He was selling his papers on the dock at the time. When his notice was attracted to the accident, he at once threw the papers down and plunged in. He was taken out himself in a drowning condition.

"When you drowns," he says, speak feelingly from experience, "not a thing you ever did but it comes up in your head. Then, may be, after that, you hear a kin' o' noise like music in your ears."

Long's best case was the saving of a son of Police Sergeant Webb's in Dover dock, and Kelly's of a boy at Bay Ridge, who drew him down twice in the effort.

BRIEFLETS.

—More Manitoba.
—Prayer meetings at the churches to-night.

—Burglars are prowling around Beloit, but secure little plunder.

—Frank Barnett, of Cedar Rapids, again greets his old friends here.

—July has been sitting in the shade and cooling off, but is warming up again.

—It would be better for the betters if they never bet on base-ball. It's mighty "ou-sirtin'."

—Mrs. Blakesley's house in Beloit was burned yesterday afternoon. The loss was not total.

—A number of those who delight to see speedy horse-flesh went to Chicago this morning.

—The lumber firm of Lovejoy & Burpee have dissolved and Mr. Burpee is to continue the business.

—The funeral services of the late Nathaniel Case were held this afternoon and were quite largely attended. Rev. Mr. Sewell officiated.

—Miss Laura Burton, a prominent young lady in Fond du Lac's social circles, is visiting for a few days her cousin, Miss Jennie Woodruff.

—To-night the Ancient Order of United Workmen hold their anniversary exercises at Lippin's hall. None but members and their families are to participate.

—The funeral of Mrs. Gilbertson took place yesterday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Sewell officiating, the pastor of the Norwegian Lutheran church being absent from the city.

—All who attended the Temple of Honor excursion to Madison yesterday say they had a good time. There was no accident and no unpleasantness to mar the day's enjoyment.

—All the returns are not in concerning the financial part of the Temple of Honor excursion, but it is estimated that the receipts and expenditures will very nearly balance each other.

—Young Jeffries is reported to-day as getting along very comfortably, and there seems every reason for expecting as speedy a recovery as the nature of the injuries would naturally permit.

—H. M. Hart has acted most wisely in placing Charles E. Moseley in charge of the local agency of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, of New York. Mr. Moseley never slumbers when he ought to be awake.

—Will Lawrence, son of Rev. G. W. Lawrence, is spending a few weeks in the city. He will soon return to Milwaukee, and will continue to fill the position of principal of the Fourth ward school in that city.

—Some strange prowler was around Charles Potter's house Wednesday night. The dogs sounded the alarm and the man of the house got to the window just in time to see a man climbing over the fence and getting away.

—Mrs. Hunt left to-day for the East. She will spend some time at Lake Chautauque. She is an enthusiastic teacher and Sunday School worker, and will gain great good out of the Assembly to be held there during next month.

—The first M. E. sociable last evening at Mr. Samuel Wright's was an enjoyable affair. One hundred and twenty-five persons were present. The time was fully occupied with choice songs and pleasant conversations. Ice cream and refreshments were served to those who desired. As fine a class of young and middle aged people as can be found in the community were there.

—Those who went from here to Madison yesterday speak in high terms of the courtesy shown them by Dr. T. W. Evans, who in behalf of the Madison Temple of Honor threw open the rooms of that organization for the use of the Janesville visitors, and saw that the excursionists were provided with needed accommodations. Mr. J. E. Moseley also showed the visitors many hospitalities.

—Barnes & Hodson in making their improvements in their mill have built a coffer-dam, and in order to keep the water down have got a hydraulic pump from Edgerton, which is the boss worker. It has a capacity of 3,000 gallons per minute, and in an hour's time it reduces the height of water about four feet in the course of an hour. It is a working wonder.

—The Bower City Band came back from Madison loud in praises of the kindly treatment they received at the hands of "mine host" VanEtta, of the Vilas house. Their reception at Madison was a cordial one, and their music and appearance were evidently appreciated, as they received many compliments on all sides. Many thought it was Bach's band from Milwaukee, which of itself is a high tribute.

—Messrs. Tom McKee, George McKee, John McKee, Walter Myers and Will Conrad have returned from their camping out in Walworth county. They report a jolly time. It is said that during seven days they made 117 quarts of milk disappear, and they didn't spill any, and this was only one of the articles of diet they evidently had their appetites whetted to a healthy extent.

—Mr. D. B. Hodges, who has been with the Tony Denier combination for some time, is now in the city as manager of the Haverly Church Choir Company. He has arranged for the Company to present "H. M. S. Pinafore," at the Opera house on the evening of the 31st inst. The Company numbers fifty-five members, and will present that popular opera in its entirety and in a far more pleasing manner than it was ever given.

—Extensive preparations are being made for the presentation of the comic opera of "The Doctor of Alcantara," next Monday night. There should be a crowd to greet the singers. It costs half a dollar to get in, but it don't cost one cent more to secure your seat in advance. Undoubtedly it will be the last presentation here of this opera, as it was only by a fortunate chance that Dr. Barnes has been secured again to take the favorite role of "Carlos."

—The Ojibwa (Minn.) Review of a late date says: "Mr. H. K. Tompkins, who has been with E. Y. Hunowill, in the hardware business for a number of years, has severed his connection with that firm and will become a 'traveling companion' for the well known hardware house of Mayro & Clark, of St. Paul. He will accept his new position on the 1st of August. Mr. Tompkins' family will still reside in Owatonna." Mr. Tompkins is the son of Mrs. L. E. Tompkins, of this city, and has many friends and acquaintances here who will be interested in learning the above fact, and who will wish him success in his new position.

—Yesterday afternoon one of our citizens drove up to the postoffice, jumped out, and asking a friend who stood on the sidewalk to watch the horse a minute, stepped in after his mail. The friend had his attention drawn elsewhere, and did not notice when the owner of the rig returned. Looking around he saw the top-buggy just moving off, and supposing the horse had started of his own accord, became frightened at his own neglect of watchfulness, and started on the run after the rig, shouting "whos, whos Emma." By the time he had run hallooing for a block or more, the man in the buggy, hearing the commotion, stuck his head out, and the runner's anxiety was relieved at the discovery that there were hands at the ends of the ribbons. The cruel crowd laughed.

—One of the gallant excursionists to Madison yesterday entertained a nervous old lady, who was crowded into the seat beside him, by relating all the horrible accidents that had occurred on the rail within his recollection. The old lady clutched the cushions with one hand, and grip-saw with the other, and hung on till she couldn't stand it any longer, and then she remarked: "Yes, that's so. I wouldn't have thought of taking this train at all, but I was in a hurry to get home to Madison, for I have been away six weeks tending to a sick daughter who lives out in the country a ways. Her husband is a farmer and lives quite a ways from town, and he couldn't get anybody to take care of her, so I had to stay." "What a sick daughter—was she very sick?" "Yes, pretty sick for a time; she only had the varioloid, though, not the regular small-pox." She looked around and found she had the seat to herself, and there were no more stories of railroad accidents sounding in her ears.

THE WEATHER.

REPORTED BY PRENTICE & EVERTON, DRUGGISTS.

The thermometer at 6 o'clock last evening stood at 74 degrees above, at 1 o'clock a. m. to-day at 62 degrees above; at 7 o'clock a. m. at 63 degrees above, and at 1 o'clock p. m. at 73 degrees above. Cloudy.

One year ago to-day at 7 o'clock a. m. the thermometer stood at 70 degrees above and at 2 o'clock p. m. at 85 degrees above.

The indications are, for the upper lake region, northeast to southeast winds, partly cloudy weather, rising followed by falling barometer, and no decided change in temperature.

SPORTING SQUADRIES.

In the 230 race at Chicago yesterday, Ella Earl won, taking the first, third and fourth heats in 2:35, 2:38, 2:37 1/2.

In the 230 class Bonessetter won in straight heats, time being 2:24, 2:21, 2:24. At the close of the race he was sold to Joseph McAvoy & J. F. Studebaker for $10,000.

Pools in the special race between Rarus and Hopeful sold in Chicago last night in favor of Rarus by 5 to 3, and later at $50 to $17.

The Providence nine defeated the Chicago yesterday 13 to 4.

At Cleveland yesterday the Boston won by 3 to 1.

THE LOST IS FOUND.

This morning a young man named Carroll, who is in the employ of Thomas Graham, found in the stable of the Farmer's hotel, a gold watch and chain. It was buried in the straw and dirt, and Carroll in raking up the rubbish dragged out this bit of valuable property. It had evidently been there some time. An examination showed that it was the same watch which Robert Campbell, the tailor, lost more than a year ago. It will be remembered that Campbell charged two young men with having robbed him of the watch and chain, and a gold ring, while he was lying asleep in that barn. The persons accused were arrested, but on trial were acquitted. No tidings have been heard of the watch until it was found this morning. Mr. Campbell described the property in such a manner as to remove all doubt about it being his, and it was promptly turned over to him.

Dr. V. C. Price's reputation and success becoming so extended, the number of years that he has enjoyed it, his devotion to the pursuits and studies of his profession, is one of the strongest and most competent testimonials that can be given him.

Dr. Price's next day for receiving patients at Janesville, Myers House, on Saturday and Sunday, the 26th and 27th of July.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Pain is a blessing. It locates disease. Whenever the bowels become irregular, use Tarrant's Seltzer Aperient.

It will save much pain and danger. Nature sometimes is so outraged by the burden she is made to carry, through the fecundity of her children, that she quietly rebels, and punishes fearfully. Don't neglect the proper treatment when the symptoms first appear. Resort to the aperient, and get well speedily.
